It's Never Too Late to Find Love

Once again the Buenos Aires Community Center makes history when two elderly participants meet, fall in love and get married. Arnulfo Camacho, 83 has been a participant of the Buenos Aires Community Center for many years. Never did he imagine that he would find love in the midst of the people he has been playing loteria with. All that changed about six months ago when Josefina Aguilera, 68 became a participant of the center. It was like a scene from a movie, their eyes met, and since that day, they have been inseparable. We are happy to announce that they were joined in Holy Matrimony on July 2, 2009; Judge Ben Morales presided over their wedding. It is amazing to see just how happy this couple is since they met and fell in love. For those of us who have not found love, or have lost love along the way, let this beautiful and amazing example show you that "It is never too late to find love". Everyone at the Center wishes them a long and fruitful life together.

May God Bless their union today, tomorrow and for all eternity.

Despedida de Solteros

Before their big day, the Buenos Aires Community

Center hosted a "Despedida de Solteros" for Arnulfo Camacho and Josefina Aguilera. Everyone walked into the center bearing gifts for the happy couple. Many games were played, gifts were raffled and a delicious breakfast was enjoyed.

Seven Steps to a Healthy Marriage

- Commitment: Commitment is the foremost important decision to make before you wed. Be committed from day one, make the choice to stick to it, no matter what.
- Agreement: Being in agreement with one another is very important as well. Without this vital key in a marriage, boiling arguments are inevitable.
- Common Interests: What normally brings two people together is common interest.
- Forgiving Forever: This is probably one of the hardest things to do in one's life let alone in a marriage. Trust is a very important factor in a marriage and once it is broken, it is hard to earn it back, but it is not impossible with forgiveness.
- Giving 110%: When we marry, we are deeply in love, wishing only the best for our spouses, and expecting only the best from them. When we dated our spouses, we always put them first, giving 100% of our attention and our time. Their needs, wants and desires become ours.
- Power of Apology: This simple word is quite powerful actually. Saying your sorry covers a multitude of sins, and can lead to immediate healing and restoration.
- Thankfulness: Gratitude goes far and is remembered long after it is offered. There are so many things in life to be thankful for, and our spouse should be at the top of the list.
