

LA PRESA COMMUNITY CENTER

APRIL/2014

La Presa Community Center held its Easter Picnic on April 17, 2014 for the Elderly. The Elderly participated in dancing, Easter egg hunt. What was on the menu? Homemade corn and tortillas de harina, five different kinds picante sauce, and last but not least taquitos de sirloin, sausage and juicy tender ribs (YUMMY). Approximately a total of 25 participates attended.

The yearly Children's Easter Egg Hunt was a huge success. Thank you to Webb County Public Defender's Office this is a yearly event. Ms. Estella Rodriguez with Webb County Public Defender's Office provided fifty children with Easter Baskets, Cascarones, two candy filled Piñatas, and a sound system. Hotdogs, chips and a drink were also provided. Everyone enjoy watching the children strut their different dance techniques.
