Indigent Health & Engineering Building Ribbon Cutting

After many months of work, the Indigent Health and Engineering Building, located at 1620 Santa Ursula, officially opened its doors. It was a proud moment as the Commissioners Court, Indigent Health Director Frank Salinas, and County Engineer Mike Cabello cut the ceremonial ribbon. Key to the acquisition of the building was Commissioner Jerry Garza who served as chairman of the building committee. Commissioner Jaime Canales, prior to serving as Commissioner, was a member of the committee and also instrumental in acquiring the building. The new building will help both departments improve the services given to the public.

An Autumn Welcome

Commissioners Jaime Canales and Jerry Garza, joined by Judge Danny Valdez, hosted an Autumn Welcome luncheon for Community Center elderly. Attendants were treated to a chicken plate lunch and music and dancing led by Mr. Felipe Saldivar. The luncheon was organized as a way to give the residents a chance to mingle and enjoy a good time from their normal routines.

Webb County Employee Picnic 2011

The Webb County Employee Recognition Committee hosted the 2011 Employee Picnic. Over 900 people attended the festivities which included a bake off contest, a costume contest, softball tournament. A medley of delicious foods was available as well as music and a fun time with fellow county employees and their families.

Monster Mash

With the leaves changing color and the weather getting cooler, another Fall tradition is also going to creep its way to the Billy Hall Building. Monster Mash! The Commissioners Court has hosted Monster Mash for the past five years as a way of boosting employee morale as well as giving employees a chance to have a good time with their fellow employees. Highlights of Monster Mash include a Costume Contest in both Group and Singles categories and the Door Decorating Contest. Monster Mash will be arriving this year on Halloween Day and all departments are encouraged to participate and enjoy a ghoulishly good time.
