Thanksgiving Greetings

Turkey & Blanket Giveaway

As cold weather and the holidays neared, Commissioner Jaime Canales presented residents of the Fred & Anita Bruni Community Center turkeys and blankets. "We wanted to take this opportunity to say 'Thank You'," said Commissioner Canales, "We have been blessed with so much, it is only right that we, in turn, give back to those in need. Active community center residents were given a large turkey and warm blanket.

Community Center Event Roundup

Twenty elderly members of La Presa Community Center completed a six-week training course in diabetic self management presented by the Area Agency on Aging of the South Texas Development Council. After the course, they were presented with a certificate of completion.

The Larga Vista Community Center proudly held its first radKIDS training. 20 children participated during the first 4 week course. radKIDS is committed to providing education that enhances the ability of children, parents, and families to utilize knowledge, skills, and power to protect themselves from violence and harm. The radKIDS objective is to provide educational opportunities for children and parents concerning awareness and personal safety strategies, instilling confidence, and reducing the possibility of adverse physical control and/ or harm. For more information on radKIDS visit: <http://www.radkids.org/>.

Commissioner John Galo joined the Santa Teresita Community Center for their Annual Thanksgiving Luncheon. Community members joined together in a delicious meal to give thanks and enjoy each other's company. Members of Santa Teresita Community Center also received turkeys courtesy of Commissioner John Galo.

The participants at Fernando Salinas Community Center received a special visit from KLDO Univision news anchor Miguel Amante who shared a little about his career experiences with them and also participated in their monthly birthday celebration.
